

Conestoga Courage* by Faith Reese Martin
189 pages * Second edition
ISBN 978-1-60800-008-1 * SRP $11.99
Cover art by June Howell * Cover design by Mike Lovell
Historical Fiction * Preteen+

Headlines:

Two teen-age friends and their pets run a desperate race through the time tunnel of history. Their mission is to thwart a gang of ruffians who are intent upon murdering the last fourteen members of the Conestoga Indian tribe.

Summary:

Conestoga Courage is an action packed mystery that has teenagers Jinx McKenzie and Max Myers traveling at warp speed through the time tunnel as they are summoned by a distraught figure from the past.

Along with their animal sidekicks, the JMP History Mystery Detective Agency must unravel veiled hints and attempt a daring change in history that will affect the few remaining members of the Conestoga Indians of Pennsylvania in 1763.

Jinx and Max each struggle with their conscience and the world's prejudice as they put themselves into extreme danger to prevent a terrible wrong that was committed hundreds of years ago.