

Lost and Found Colony* by Faith Reese Martin
132 pages * Second Edition
ISBN 978-1-60800-007-4 * SRP $11.99
Cover art by June Howell * Design by Mike Lovell
Historical Fiction * Preteen+
Published by Life Reloaded
www.lifereloaded.com
www.americanliterarypublishing.com

Headlines: Twelve-year-old Jinx MacKenzie didn't acquire her nickname easily, and she has the bumps, bangs, and bruises to prove it.

Summary: Lost and Found Colony is a lively and humorous mystery that keeps Jinx, her terrier Petey, and her new friend Max scrambling for clues.

While vacationing on Roanoke Island, North Carolina with her mother, Jinx must write a research paper to pass her 'boring old history' class. She soon becomes intrigued by the mystery of the Lost Colony from England as she meets fascinating and sometimes frightening people from the past.

Amidst the struggles of figuring out what could have happened to the Lost Colony, she learns a new respect for the dauntless pioneers of our past. She and her fearless sidekicks also manage to solve a four hundred year old mystery in the process.