

Lost and Found Colony* by Faith Reese Martin

256 pages * First edition

ISBN 978-1-59092-396-2 * SRP $11.99

Cover art by June Howell

Historical Fiction * YA

Headlines:

Twelve-year-old Jinx MacKenzie didn't acquire her nickname easily, and she has the bumps, bangs, and bruises to prove it.

SUMMARY

Lost and Found Colony* is a lively and humorous mystery that keeps Jinx, her terrier Petey, and her new friend Max scrambling for clues.

While vacationing on Roanoke Island, North Carolina with her mother, Jinx must write a research paper to pass her 'boring old history' class. She soon becomes intrigued by the mystery of the Lost Colony from England as she meets fascinating and sometimes frightening people from the past.

Amidst the struggles of figuring out what they want of her, and what could have happened to the Lost Colony, she learns a new respect for the dauntless pioneers of our past. She and her fearless sidekicks also manage to solve a four hundred year old mystery in the process.